Dates With Good Teams | Whose manner is childlike and meek. But that "Orfice Boy" of Riley's Are Being Closed.

Macon's Opinion of Ruhlin--Championship Chances.

McCormick and Gus Matched-Sporting News.

H. H. Camp, elected manager the Akron Foot Ball association at Friday night's meeting, has started in with a vim that augurs success for the season of 1899.

He has already written to a num ber of the leading teams for dates. The schedule will be announced as soon as it is closed. Only first-class itching instantly and quickly effected elevens will be brought to this city. A new man, who will probably make the team, is William Cooper, a mechanical engineer with the Sterling Boiler company of Barberton. He will be in the line, either right or for the nomination for County Comleft tackle. Mr. Cooper played with the University of Michigan at left guard and tackle. He weighs 190 pounds, is quick and strong and will a resident of the county ever since he was a child. He is a prosperous add a great deal of strength to the and progressive farmer and was born in 1848, and is well and favorably team. There are numerous other known in every township in the players who will try to make the county. His extensive acquaintance team and it is evident that Akron makes him a strong candidate and his nomination would strengthen the will have a better eleven than ever whole county ticket. Uncertain as to Meaning of a Word.

$10.000 Damages Diamond Match Co.

Alleged to be Insane-Court House

An injunction that did not enjoin was issued by Judge Anderson Monday in the case of Adams vs. Luke. The plaintiff operates a mine in Tallmadge township, the opening of which is on a farm adjoining that of the defendant. The mouth of an air shaft is on Luke's premises. Some time ago he threatened to close this and Adams filed an action asking for an injunction. A temporary restraining order was allowed. Luke evidently marked a cross on his calendar, showing the date when the order cesed to be in force. Several days ago the injunction expired and Luke lost no time in closing the shaft. This fact was discovered when the last injunction was served on him. He had carried his point without violating any order of the

New Word.

The defendant in the case of Samuel R. Gotshall vs. T. W. McCue has filed a motion asking that the plaintiff make his petition more definite and certain. He wants to know the meaning of the word "Def't."
